

Consultancy Services

FAB Support can provide a range of consultancy services. These can include full or partial quality audits, independent investigations, support to develop policies and procedures, assistance with fee negotiations and business development. We specialise in Continuous Improvement Systems and general problem solving. For more information please contact info@fabsupport.org